

Methodology

Teachers are committed to employing current pedagogy within their teaching. This includes the principles and practices of:

- AiFL (Assessment is for learning)
- Active Learning
- Co-operative Learning
- Interdisciplinary Topics
- Inclusion of Literacy, Numeracy and Health and Well Being (see these statements)
- Other cross cutting themes throughout the curriculum.
- Safe, acceptable use of ICT across the curriculum.

Monitoring and review

- Monitoring and evaluation takes place through a variety of processes throughout the school calendar including:
 - Classroom assessment and monitoring by class teachers and peers
 - Self and peer assessment by pupils.
 - Learning journeys, learning logs and portfolios.
 - Target setting.
 - End of unit assessments, SQA examinations as appropriate.
 - Evaluation and monitoring by Senior Leadership Team.
 - Public opportunities to value learners' achievements.

At Rothesay Joint Campus we are all committed in our endeavour to -
"Get It Right For Every Child!"
